City-County Tax Bill Goes Before Senate

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Senate got Gov. Orval E. Faubus' new city-county tax amendment Wednesday on the first day of regular legislative business.

The proposed amendment was introduced by Sens. E. L. Mosley of Camden, Clarence Bell of Parkin and W. K. Ingram of West Memphis, but it followed a course laid out by Faubus in his inaugural address Tuesday.

It is a short, one-page proposal which, in essence, boosts the property tax limit for general city operations from five to 10 mills and the limit for county operations from eight to ten mills.

The amendment was one of eight measures introduced in the Senate. The House got 24 measures, including a proposed amendment to revoke constitutional status of the Game and Fish Commission.

The game and fish proposal could provoke real fireworks if its authors, Reps. Marcus J. Howell of Phillips County and Claude Collie of Greene County, push hard to get it on the 1964 general election ballot.

The Legislature can refer three amendments to the ballot. It usually gets 30 to 40 proposals each session and makes its selection during the last week.

The new tax proposal represents a third consecutive attempt to voter approval of a measure to give cities and counties authority to raise needed revenue at the local level.

The 1959 Legislature proposed an amendment to boost the cities' capital improvements tax from five to 10 mills, but voters rejected it in 1960. The General Assembly came back in 1961 with an amendment to give cities and counties broad taxing powers subject to voter approval. This one was defeated last November.

The current amendment does not require a popular vote before a tax can be levied but Faubus said he feels the 10-mill limit will have popular appeal.

Tax rates for capital improvements would not be affected by the new amendment.

Sen. Clarence Bell of Parkin introduced a bill set at a modest minimum salary for teachers.

Bell's minimums would range from $1,800 for non-degree teachers to $3,300 for those with masters degrees in 1963-64. The following year the floor would be $2,100 in the lowest bracket and $3,600 in the highest.

Gas Explosion in New York Wrecks Plant

GARDEN CITY, N.Y. (AP)—Liquefied gas that leaked from a container stored in an alley into the basement of a one-story building exploded early today, destroyed the structure and shook residents in six Long Island communities.

The blast blew to bits a building housing the plant of the Reporter of Direct Mail Advertising, a nationally circulated monthly publication.

There were no injuries but 15 persons were evacuated for a time from a nearby apartment building. The first blast, and a series of chain explosions, menaced other buildings during most of the early morning hours.

Peter Hoke, who owns the magazine firm, said the building was valued at $60,000. He said it was insured.

He said a mailing list worth a quarter of a million dollars was saved.

Deputy Fire Chief John Norcross said containers of the liquefied gas, which is heavier than air, were stored next to the building. They were used in firing heating devices that keep concrete and plaster work from freezing during construction on a medical arts center next door.

One of the 100-gallon drums apparently sprang a leak and flowed into the basement. The accumulation was touched off when the building's oil burner fired.

The first blast set off four other tanks, one of the blasts setting a small fire on the roof of the medical building. It was quickly extinguished by firemen.

Nikita Visits Berlin Wall, Waves to West

By TOM OCHILTREE

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev today visited communism's bleak and hated wall dividing Berlin and gazed thoughtfully for a moment at the American flag fluttering over nearby Checkpoint Charlie.

Standing at the point where U.S. and Soviet tanks confronted each other in the Berlin crisis of October 1961, he waved cheerfully to people in West Berlin.

The premier made his excursion to the wall at midday after hearing Wladyslaw Gomulka, Polish Communist chief, hail him as the man who saved the world from nuclear catastrophe during the Cuban crisis.

Khrushchev spent the morning at the East German Communist party conference where the argument between Moscow and Peking occupies the attention of 2,500 delegates and guests.

Gomulka demanded that the Chinese Communists cease their attacks on Soviet policies and "show greater modesty and moderation" in their dealings with Moscow.

Gomulka went right down the line to make it clear that he was backing Khrushchev without qualification in the argument with Peking. He also urged that this argument be taken out of the world's gaze and be settled by private discussions.

With East German party chief Walter Ulbricht at his side, Khrushchev then went to the wall. He showed no inclination to accept West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt's suggestion that he look at the wall from West Berlin.

He approached the border at the U.S. sector's Friedrichstrasse crossing point.

Brandt, in an interview early this month, suggested that Khrushchev get a first-hand picture of the real conditions in both parts of divided Berlin. But Khrushchev made no move to cross over into the West.

Board Named to Probe Dock Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—A special board named by President Kennedy stepped today into the 26-day East and Gulf Coast dock strike.

Its mission: Achieve a settlement by Monday or recommend a procedure to get more than 500 idle ships moving again.

"The point of public toleration of this situation has been passed," the President said in appointing the three-man board Wednesday. He said the tie-up was causing intolerable injury to the national welfare.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., flew here from Washington and conferred immediately with James J. Reynolds, assistant Secretary of Labor, who has been mediating negotiation efforts.

The senator's session with Reynolds was a prelude to board hearings to which the disputants were invited to air their cases.

"I have never seen a labor case that could not be settled by good-faith negotiations between the party litigants," Morse said.

Cold Return by Friday Is Forecast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Slowly rising temperatures gave Arkansas some relief today from the frigid weather that has chilled the state for the past week, but the Weather Bureau said the respite probably would be brief.

Another cold surge of air was expected to reach northern Arkansas late Friday, and occasional rain was expected to offset the more pleasurable temperatures today. Light rain or showers were predicted through Saturday.

High temperatures this afternoon were expected to reach the mid 50s in most sections of the state, with lows of 32 north to 40 south predicted for tonight.

Overnight lows today dipped to 13 at Batesville and ranged as high as the 27 recorded at Fort Smith.

The only precipitation reported in the state during the 24-hour period ending this morning at six o'clock was a trace at El Dorado, but night rain, drizzle and sleet began falling shortly thereafter in the south central portion of the state. Movement was north-northeast at 10-15 miles per hour.

It was in August, 1955 that Reverend Land preached his first sermon as pastor of the local church.

Under the leadership of Pastor Land, the church has shown material progress including the remodeling of the parsonage, relocating and remodeling the music-youth Director's residence, contracting for and purchasing the duplex adjacent on the south of the church, accumulating funds in the Sanctuary building fund in the amount of $50,000.00.

There are seven missionary couples who receive support from this Assembly as a part of its outreach program.

During the past seven years, there has been an average of 50 conversions each year.

For four years, the teenage son, Bill, has served as church organist. Their five year old son was born in Hope.

A reception will be held in the Fellowship Hall this Friday at 7:30 p.m. which will afford friends an opportunity for a personal word with Pastor and Mrs. Land.

Arkansas R. Valley Fund $72 Million

WASHINGTON (AP)—Appropriation of $72.5 million for navigation and other water project in the Arkansas River Basin of Arkansas and Oklahoma was recommended today by President Kennedy.

In the budget he submitted to Congress for the fiscal year starting July 1, the President proposed $77,856,000 for Army Engineer projects in Arkansas and $46,212,200 for projects in Oklahoma.

The funds would be for projects on the Arkansas, its tributaries and streams flowing into them.

A new start proposed is the Short Mountain multiple purpose lock and dam project in Oklahoma for which $1.5 million in construction money was asked.

The largest amount for a single project was $20 million for use next fiscal year in continued construction on the Dardanelle multiple purpose lock and dam project in Arkansas.

Appropriation of another $18 million was recommended for bank stabilization and channel rectification on the Arkansas River navigation project, Arkansas and Oklahoma, and $11 million for further work on navigation locks and dams on the Arkansas and tributaries. Operation and maintenance funds of $900,000 for the navigation projects were proposed.

Also included was $370,000 for advanced planning for the Webster Falls lock and dam navigation project in Oklahoma and $285,000 for the same purpose of the Ozark lock and dam navigation project in Arkansas.

Congress was asked by President Kennedy to provide more than $1.46 billion for water projects to be built throughout the nation by Army Engineers and the Reclamation Bureau in the fiscal year starting July 1.

This was nearly $100 million above the $1,377,045,400 which Congress gave the two agencies last year to build, operate and maintain navigation, flood control, irrigation, beach erosion and power projects.

Of the total asked by Kennedy, $1,086,916,000 would go to Army Engineers, compared with $1,043,358,800 appropriated last year, and $376,469,000 to the Reclamation Bureau compared with last year's appropriation of $333,687,600.

Kennedy asked for funds to construct 64 reclamation projects, including seven new starts, and for 224 Army Engineer projects, including 30 new starts.

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy proposed today an unprecedented $98.8-billion budget keyed to deficit-cutting tax cuts which he said would spark the nation toward full employment, production and purchasing power.

Kennedy's spending program for the year starting July 1 would top even the highest of wartime budgets, $96.3 billion in 1944-45, and shoot the public debt to a record $315.6 billion.

Nonetheless, he insisted it was shaped to put new life into the economy and insure "efficient and frugal" conduct of the government.

In a message sending his mid-term budget to Congress, Kennedy acknowledged the $13.5-billion, three-year tax cutting plan he unveiled earlier this week would at first add $4.1 billion to federal finances. He estimated the "deficit" would rise from the $8.8 billion now anticipated this year to $11.9 billion.

Recommendations Kennedy sent to Capitol Hill included:

—Over-all defense spending of $55.4 billion, up $2.4 billion from the current year; emphasis on a strong retaliatory force, flexible conventional forces, better air

There were 253,000 broiler chicks shipped out of the state during the week. The estimated total of 5,875,000 eggs set for broiler-type chicks in Arkansas during the week was seven per cent above the previous week.

Recommends Voting on Machine Issue

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas House Judiciary Committee recommended passage by a 64 vote today of a bill to permit machine counting of ballots in state elections.

Pulaski County Rep. Glenn Walther, author of the bill, presented it as a substitute for voting machines.

To objectors he said, "Some people have a phobia that we must have voting machines because they've got them up north. I'm not married to voting machines."

Walther said the vote counting procedure suggested in his bill had not been tried before, but that if it worked, it would make voting machines obsolete.

The bill would permit preparation of ballots which could be machine counted. County election commissions could make contracts with business machine firms to handle the counting.

Walther said his plan would keep the same kind of ballot the state now has (marked with an "X"), the numbering system the state now has and it would require only one machine in each county instead of many.

Garland County Rep. Nathan Schoenfeld and Crittenden County Rep. C. B. Nance led the opposition on grounds they did not fully understand the bill.

Committee approval came after Lawrence County Rep. Paul Graham pointed out that such a law would be valuable in counties where voters may decide against use of regular voting machines.

Subzero Cold Persists in Midwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Subzero cold persisted in sections of the Midwest and Northeast today but a warming trend appeared on the way for most of the eastern half of the nation.

The below zero zone in the Midwest was confined to the extreme eastern Dakotas, Minnesota, western half of Wisconsin, northeastern Nebraska, most of Iowa and in parts of northern Illinois.

In Lone Rock, Wis., one of the nation's coldest spots during the severe spell of frigid weather in the last week, the mercury made a rapid rise Wednesday after dropping to -37 in the morning. It was only -3 at 11 p.m. but four hours later, the mercury had dropped to 26 below, averaging a descent of nearly eight degrees an hour. It was -15 in nearby Madison.

In Minnesota, a reading of -25 was reported in International Falls and -10 in Duluth. Minneapolis with six below, had its warmest morning this week.

In the Northeast, lowest temperatures appeared to be confined to Maine, with -23 in Old Town, -21 in Millinocket and -18 in Montpelier, Vt. The cold air also swept into New York State Wednesday, dropping temperatures to subzero marks, with records for the date in some cities. But readings generally were above zero this morning.

Outside the cold belts, temperatures were mostly in the teens to the 20s in interior sections of the country. They were in the 30s and 40s along the Pacific Coast and most of the central and southern sections of the Atlantic Coast.

Most of Southern California, southeast Texas, and the Gulf coastal region had marks into the 50s, with 70-degree readings in southern Florida. The moderating trend continued in the Southeast with early morning lows mostly in the middle and low 20s in Tennessee, north and central parts of Alabama and Georgia and most of the Carolinas. The upper 30s were reported in a few spots in northwest Florida.

Snow was indicated during the day from northern Idaho into northern Nevada, Utah and Colorado eastward through Montana, the Dakotas, and southern Minnesota. The snow belt also was expected to cover areas across eastern Wyoming, eastern Nebraska and extreme northwestern Missouri.

already pay more than Bell's proposed minimums.

The Pulaski County Senate delegation—Max Howell, Dan Sprick and Ellis Fagan—introduced a bill to give residents of an area to be annexed by a city the privilege of voting on the matter.

Under current law, only residents of the city get to vote. The only way rural opponents can fight annexation now is through the courts. The new bill would require a favorable vote in both areas before territory can be annexed.

The House got a hopperful of bills which are expected to produce spirited debate.

Rep. Milt Earnhart of Sebastian County introduced bills to change the primary election date from late July to early May, eliminating, he said, "the long, hot summer of Arkansas politics," and to require independent and write-in candidates in a general election to pay a ballot fee equal to what their opponents paid for the privilege of running in the primary.

Bradley County Rep. Bill Wells introduced a bill to require the Highway Department to take 80 miles of county roads in each county into the state Highway system within the next 10 years.

A bill by Rep. Bill Tucker of Hot Spring County would increase the state income tax credit for dependents from $6 to $10 each.

Hempstead County Rep. Talbot Feild Jr. came up with a bill to require Quorum Courts to provide funds for publishing county warrants. This was an apparent effort to head off a move by county clerks to repeal the law requiring publication of the warrants.

Pulaski County Rep. Glenn Walther introduced a bill to permit counties to contract for machine counting of especially printed ballots. He said the measure might eliminate the necessity of voting machines to speed vote counting in large areas.

The House also received Wednesday a bill to implement Amendment 50, the voting machine amendment approved last November. The bill specifically states that use of machines must be approved by a majority vote in the county or city concerned.

Legislative Council - approved bills to set up a voter registration system and to codify state election laws also were introduced in the House.

Resolutions calling on Congress to propose three states rights amendments to the federal constitution sailed through the Senate Wednesday, but the House balked at considering them as a special order of business.

The House vote was expected today.

The resolutions ask for amendments to create a Court of the Union with power to overrule U.S. Supreme Court decisions, to relieve the Supreme Court to rule

Former Governor Doing Better

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Former Arkansas Gov. Ben Laney was reported in satisfactory condition in a Little Rock hospital today after suffering an apparent heart attack Wednesday.

His doctor said Laney, 63, was stricken while he was driving between Little Rock and Carlisle on business. He was brought to the hospital by ambulance from Carlisle.

Laney was governor from 1944 to 1948. He now lives in Magnolia where he has farming cattle, oil and real estate interests there and other interests in other parts of the state.

His brother, Fred Laney, died after suffering a heart attack a few weeks ago in Camden.

and missile defenses.

—Space programs costing $4.2 billion, an increase of $1.8 billion; manned space flight efforts to get most of the total, with the goal of getting a man to the moon.

—Foreign aid totaling $4,945,000,000 with special attention for countries willing to help themselves.

—Another bid for medical care for the aged financed through Social Security taxes; a new request for a Cabinet-level Department of Urban Affairs. Detailed recommendations will be made later for aid to education, farm and other programs.

For peacetime, the anticipated $11.9-billion deficit would be second only to the $12.4 billion incurred under former President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1958-59. But Kennedy argued a 1963-64 deficit is unavoidable, even at the present level of taxes. The choice, he said, lies between accepting a "chronic deficit of inertia due to inadequate economic growth" and a temporary deficit caused by programs designed to generate the economy, increase revenues and eventually achieve budget surpluses.

"The first type of deficit is a sign of waste and weakness," he argued. "The second is an investment in the future."

Kennedy foresaw receipts of $66.9 billion. He offered this reasoning to conclude that reduced taxes will start producing new revenues in the year ahead.

Tax cuts taking effect in 1963—he didn't say when—would by themselves decrease government income for the fiscal year some $5.3 billion. But two factors trim the net loss from what might have been expected to $2.7 billion. These are a speedup in collection of corporation taxes, which now lag six months, and the advance in taxable income anticipated from the stimulus of a cut in rates. And despite this loss, receipts actually will increase $1.4 billion from the 1962-63 estimate

President May Expand Trip to Europe

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Diplomats speculated today that President Kennedy's trip to Italy might be expanded to include some other European countries.

The White House announced Wednesday that Kennedy had accepted an invitation from Italian Premier Amintore Fanfani to visit Italy this year. The date is yet to be determined.

Administration officials said that the President plans to go only to Italy and there is no plan for him to visit anywhere else.

However, Western diplomats said it would be surprising if disclosure of the visit to Rome did not bring feelers from other European capitals for a Kennedy stop while he is in Europe.

Principal interest in diplomatic quarters focused on two possibilities:

1. That Kennedy might see French President Charles de Gaulle for a discussion of the split between France and the United States as well as other North Atlantic Treaty Organization nations over the formation of an allied nuclear striking force.

2. That a meeting might be arranged between Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev for an informal talk on East-West problems. It has been about a year and a half since Kennedy and Khrushchev met.

Travel Shows Cut

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Publicity and Parks Commission director Bob Evans said the number of travel shows at which Arkansas will be represented this year has been cut in half. Commission teams will man booths at six shows through April of this year, Evans said. In previous years the state had taken part in 13 shows.

of $85.5 billion because of an enlivened economy.

Thus Kennedy sought to rebut conservatives in Congress who denounce rising deficits as fiscal irresponsibility and are reluctant to cut taxes when the government ledger is in the red.

Nowhere did Kennedy name the effective date in 1963 on which he based his projection of a tax cut's effect on revenues. He held back most details for a special message to Congress later this month.

Declaring false economy would Kennedy recommended increased spending for defense and space efforts.

Fear China to Renew War in India

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Reports that Red China has rejected a six-nation truce proposal gave rise today to some Indian fears that the Chinese will renew the Himalayan border war.

Informed sources said earlier reports that the Chinese favored the truce package proposed by the nonaligned nations were deceptive. They said they have learned that Peking in fact turned down the plan.

Coinciding with the New Delhi reports, a Peking broadcast said "events of the past few days show that there is no ground for optimism" for a negotiated settlement of the conflict which the Chinese stopped with a cease-fire proclamation Nov. 22 after making big gains.

Quoting the Communist newspaper Ta Kung Pao, the broadcast said that New Delhi's reaction to the neutrals plan "can only give rise to anxiety." It said that India was demanding "unilateral withdrawal by China while itself, instead of withdrawing, will once again move forward and reoccupy China's territory."

Informed sources said the Chinese apparently refuse to pull back in Ladakh, on the northwest front, where they hold about 14,000 square miles of disputed territory, including some 2,000 square miles gained in their October-November drive.

The neutrals' plan is said to provide for a Chinese pullback of 12 miles in Ladakh and for both sides to establish civil police posts at mutually acceptable points in a buffer zone.

The six nations which drew up the plan are Ceylon, Burma, Cambodia, Indonesia, Ghana and the United Arab Republic.

Carrier Has Lost 56 Men in 2 Years

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Eleven crewmen of the disaster-prone carrier Constellation were injured in an aircraft landing accident. Two of them lost both legs, another one leg.

In a little more than two years, 56 men have been killed and 20 injured on the 75,000-ton warship. The latest accident occurred Tuesday when a steel arresting cable snapped and whipped across the deck as a jet fighter attempted a landing.

"It was like a cracked whip," said a flight surgeon. "It had a guillotine effect. There was no time to get out of the way."

The accident occurred during landing tests as Comdr. H.S. Matthews, 41, of nearby Coronado, was coming in for a landing. The carrier was 110 miles west of San Diego.

The cable, supposed to snag the jet, broke. Matthews gunned his engine, took off and flew to Miramar Naval Air Station.

Chief Aviation Boatswain's Mate Eugene Williams, 37, of nearby National City, and Airman Gordon D. Bucknam, 19, of Grand Island, N.Y., lost both their legs. Ens. Leroy G. Hudson, 31, of San Diego, lost his right leg. Others suffered broken limbs and deep cuts.

The Navy said an arresting engine sheave failed, causing the cable to break.

Fifty men were killed when the ship burned on Dec. 19, 1960, while under construction in the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

Two workers fell from a scaffold on her at the same yard and were killed in May 1961.

Four men were killed and nine injured in an engine room fire Nov. 8, 1961, when she was sailing 60 miles southeast of New York City.

Davis to Miss Oaklawn Opening

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Doug Davis, in St. Joseph's hospital here recovering from a heart attack, will miss the opening of the Oaklawn Park race season.

Davis, one of the top trainers at Oaklawn, has 46 horses stabled here. Mrs. Davis said her husband would be sidelined from three to six weeks.

Dr. Alex Harthill of Lexington, Ky. will supervise the Davis stable while the trainer is recuperating.

4-Car Collision Is Fatal to One

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A 4-car wreck killed one person and injured six others Tuesday night in Little Rock.

Police identified the dead man as Floyd Grant, 22, of North Little Rock, a passenger in a car driven by Woody H. Green, 20, of Marshall, Ark.

Most seriously injured was Homer Hutchinson, 19, of North Little Rock, another passenger in the Green car.

Others injured were Green; George Koch, 27, his wife, Betty, 21; Victor Murray, 30, and his wife, Wanda, 27, all of Little Rock. The Murphys were passengers in Koch's car.

J. R. Curtis 19, of Little Rock, and Larry Wills, 21, of North Little Rock, drivers of the other two cars, received minor injuries.

Police said Koch was chasing Curtis and that both cars struck Green's auto after running a stop sign while traveling at a high rate of speed. Green's car bounced off a fire plug and struck the Wills car.

Officers said Koch and Curtis had been charged with negligent homicide and had been released on bond.

Husband Gets Ultimatum

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My wife has just called me a cold fish, adding that ice-water must flow in my veins if I don't find her attractive. "In plain English, it's love me or leave me," she snapped, flouncing out of the room. I turn to you in desperation.

I do love her and I know she loves me. I wanted her so much before we married; in fact it was my ardent love-making that convinced her we were made for one another. We have one child and jog along as most couples do after 12 years of marriage in a Darby and Joan relationship. But after tonight's stormy scene I realize this doesn't satisfy my wife.

You can't rekindle a fire that has gone out. The spark just isn't there. My wife was very young when we married. Should I give her a chance at real love with another man? Our lives are so entwined, what with home, child and mutual financial interests that I don't see how we could ever separate. Besides, the very thought of her not being here fills me with gloom. If she'd only quit expecting more of me than I can give. In my book sex isn't the alpha and omega of married life. Or is it? —A Husband

Dear Husband: You're in a rut. Happiness in married life isn't achieved by jogging prosaically along. Don't subside into apathy. Concentrate upon the business of making your wife happy. Sex is only part of that problem. There are other ways of expressing your love and affection for her, such as understanding, harmony, sharing of interests, gifts of flowers, candy, clothes which become her, dinner for two in a new restaurant, tickets to a special show. Revive your courting days; woo her all over again. She'll respond and so will you. After that let nature take its course. Your trouble is psychological, not physiological. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflets, "Successful Marriage," and "Marital Harmony."

Dear Helen: Please answer this in your column for my husband might just happen to open my mail. After being married to him 20 years and having borne eight children, I am about to call it a day. He drinks, curses, swears and beats me—all of which the children hear and see. It is degrading.

Some men think drink is an excuse to carry on like this. The last time it happened, the doctor put everything down on paper; every bruise too, so the brute has had his last chance. I'm 39 and surely entitled to a little happiness in what's left of my life. Do you agree? —A

Dear A.: Agreed that your husband should not beat you (in some states it is a criminal offense), and that you are certainly justified in resenting his brutality, but be realistic.

You have eight children. Are any old enough to help support you? Are you capable of supporting yourself? Has your husband the money to pay separate maintenance? If the answer to these questions is no, then make one final, supreme effort to salvage what you've got by trying to get your husband back on center.

Play up to his ego (alcoholics are terribly insecure). After all, you must have loved each other. Try to recapture those early years. For additional help check with the local Alcoholics Anonymous. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet on "Alcoholism."

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine care of this newspaper. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Arkansas State Evens Season

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) - Arkansas State posted its record at 7-7 for the regular season by whipping Christian Brothers College 71-49 before 2,500 fans here Wednesday night.

The Indians go against Delta State next Saturday night. Delta beat CBC last Monday night, 74-72.

State star Jerry Rook was limited to 11 points by CBC, but Christian Brothers committed a fatal defensive error to hold Rook's scoring total down.

The red-haired forward popped in all his 11 points in the first half and guided the Indians to a 33-30 halftime lead. In the second half, CBC double-teamed him and upset the balance of its defense.

Jerry Hudgings, a 6-6 post man, led State with 15 points, Ollie Fates got 13 and Harold Callahan hit 11. Al Cash put in 17 for CBC and Mike Gleason added 11.

The Indians sacked 47 per cent of their shots from the field while CBC was hitting 32 per cent.

Thinks JFK Dock Strike May Act in

NEW YORK (AP) - An assistant secretary of labor says President Kennedy may act in the 25-day-old dock strike if the issues are not narrowed here today in what is billed as a "final attempt" at settlement.

Assistant Secretary James J. Reynolds says that if union and industry representatives don't show "substantial progress" he will return to Washington and report to Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz who in turn will report to the President.

Reynolds made the statement late Tuesday after several separate meetings with negotiators on each side.

He did not say what action Kennedy might take in an effort to halt the Atlantic and Gulf coasts strike by 60,000 men that has crippled shipping in ports from Maine to Texas.

Presidential press secretary Pierre declined in Washington to comment on Reynolds' statement.

Unless there is a settlement, soon, the President will be required by the Taft-Hartley Act to report the situation to Congress along with any special legislative plans he might have to end the deadlock.

Kennedy ended a four-day dock strike last October by invoking the national emergency clauses of the Taft-Hartley Act. An 80-day cooling-off period was ordered, and the men went back to work. When the 80-day injunction expired without a contract agreement, the dockers resumed the strike Dec. 23.

Reynolds criticized both sides - the AFL International Longshoremen's Association (ILA) and the New York Shipping Association, which represents 145 shipping and stevedoring companies.

Reynolds said: "I think both positions are unrealistic under all the circumstances and must be modified substantially if we are to get a satisfactory settlement."

Cuban UN Member Must Stand Trial

NEW YORK (AP) - A federal judge ruled today that a member of the Cuban U.N. mission does not automatically have diplomatic immunity and must stand trial for conspiring to commit sabotage in the United States.

In a decision with possible far-reaching implications, U.S. Judge Edward Weinfeld said diplomatic status with the United Nations does not automatically cover diplomatic status with the government of the United States.

The ruling came in the case of Roberto Santiesteban Casanova, 28, charged along with two others with conspiracy to commit sabotage and with conspiring to violate the Foreign Agents Registration Act.

Santiesteban, confined to the federal house of detention in lieu of $50,000 bail, has not yet pleaded to the indictment. He contended he gained diplomatic immunity on entering the United States to take up duties as a member of the Cuban U.N. mission.

Property Dispute Case Appealed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - A property dispute among the heirs of R. E. Corder, who died in Heleph in 1952, was appealed today to the Arkansas Supreme Court.

The dispute centers around whether Corder executed an instrument giving one Monte E. Corder the right to occupy a building for the rest of his life, rent free. Phillips Chancery Court ruled such an instrument had been executed.

The suit was filed by Minnie Lee Stratton and Callie Ruby Thomas, who were heirs to a one-half interest in the 15 parcels of property owned by Corder.

Measles Outbreak

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - An outbreak of measles in Clark and Woodruff counties last week was reported Wednesday by the state Health Department. A total of 110 cases were reported in Clark County and 52 cases in Woodruff County, the department said.

Arkansas Hall of Fame to Take in Six

By BILL SIMMONS

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three Arkansas football greats and a golfing legend go into the Arkansas Hall of Fame at the sixth annual induction banquet here tonight.

Russell May, Clyde Scott and George Cole, all University of Arkansas football stars, and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, a professional golfer for 32 years, will enter the hall, swelling the number to 25.

Joe Garagiola, who guided the first five inductions, will be at the helm again tonight. Stan Musial, star of the St. Louis Cardinals baseball team, will be a special guest of Jack Pickens, president of the Arkansas Hall of Fame, Inc.

Here are highlights of the careers of the men who will be honored tonight:

Dutch Harrison was born at Conway in 1910 and turned pro 20 years later. He won the Arkansas Amateur championship in 1919, after picking up the game as a caddy at the Country Club of Little Rock.

He won the Vardon Trophy, based on average strokes, one year, captured his 30th tournament (the Tijuana Open) in 1958, he was sixth in money winnings in 1956 (his best year) and he played on Ryder Cup teams in 1947-49-51.

George Cole, now assistant athletic director at the University of Arkansas, started his tenure there as a quarterback in 1924. But for a six year stint at coaching jobs at Warren and the College of the Ozarks, Cole has been at the U of A since his playing days.

He is considered one of the best running quarterbacks ever to play for the Porkers. He was an All-Southwest Conference selection in 1927, and set an individual scoring record of 85 points in one season that same year.

He also set a career scoring record of 185 points in three seasons. Both records still stand. Cole, 57, became head coach at Arkansas in 1942 when Fred Thomsen was in the Navy, and became assistant athletic director in 1958.

Clyde (Smackover) Scott got his nickname from his hometown in South Arkansas. He was a three-time All-Southwest Conference choice, and the No. 1 draft choice of the Philadelphia Eagles, then the defending champions of the National Football League.

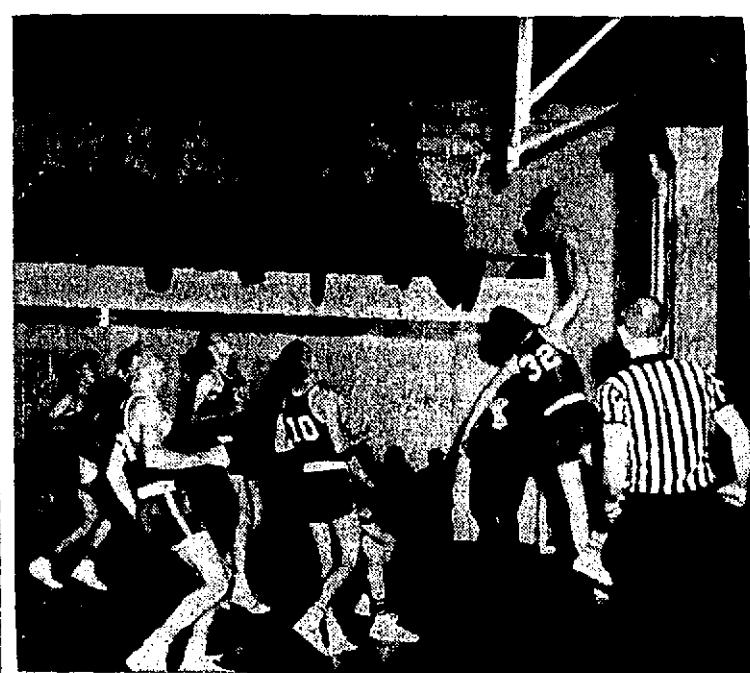

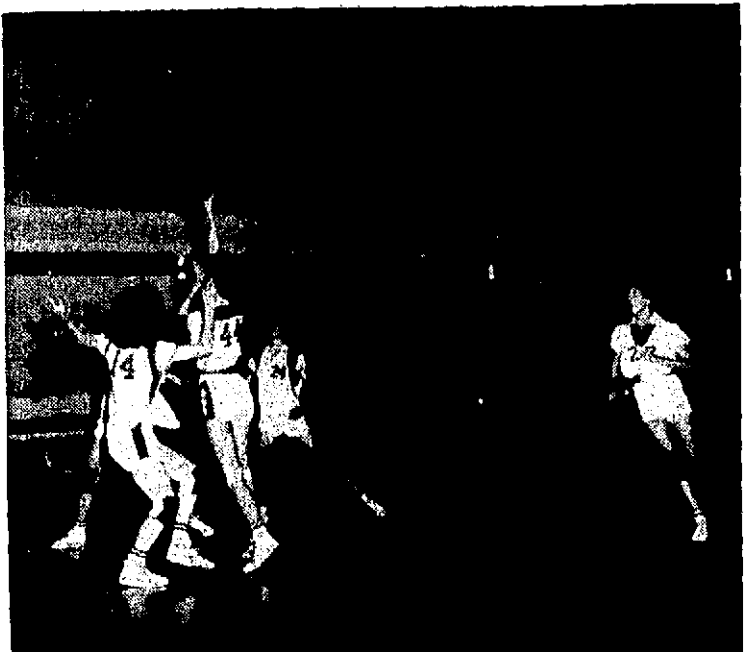

Scott also starred on the famed war-time teams at the Naval Academy.

Russell May, a selection by the Old Timers study committee of the Hall of Fame, lettered four years as a football player at Arkansas (1910-1913).

He also was a member of the first track team organized at Arkansas and in the team's first meet in 1911 he scored 20 points.

In 1935 the New York Sun called May a man "who scored more touchdowns, kicked more extra points, gained more ground, made more tackles and caught more passes than any other man in his era."

Hope Teams in Two Wins at Tournaments

By CARTER HARDAGE

Wednesday, three Hope teams played in tournaments and took two games. At Saratoga the Senior Girls blasted Delight 46 to 22, while the B Boys were edged 59-52 by Fouke.

At Emmet the Junior Boys downed Prescott in Tourney play. This was the second night in a row for the Juniors, this time the score was 29 to 16. The Juniors Girls drew a forfeit from Prescott.

Hope's Lady Cats overran Delight 46 to 22. Hope score 17 points in the first period to only 2 for Delight, those free tosses, the Hope girls dominated the play making it 24-8 at the half, 32 to 19 at the end of three.

Shirley Smith was high with 18, Janice Lloyd had 16 and Annette Hatfield 12.

Also at Saratoga the B Boys were shaded by Fouke's Seniors. Hope took an early 14-12 lead but couldn't hold it although the score was 25-all at the half. Plagued by fouls in the last half Hope fell behind 46-40 in the third period and couldn't catch up. Honeycutt, and Thrash fouled out while Henley, Reinhardt and Wassell finished with four each. Wassell was high with 16, Reinhardt 10, Henley 8, Jordan made 6, Honeycutt 4 and McNatt 2.

In their second meeting in as many nights the Bobkittens tore up Prescott 29-16. Hope score 9 in the first period to zero for Prescott. But the Wolf Cubs closed the gap to 11 to 8 at the half. At the end of three it was 23 to 11. Jack Watkins was high with 10, Ramsey made 6, Ingram and McGill 4 each, Parris 3 and May 1. Others playing were Strong, Turner, McAdams, Thompson. The Juniors got 5 for 3 at the free throw line.

UA Back Is Honored by Many Gifts

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—University of Arkansas tailback Jesse Branch was given a baby pig, a new car and a bundle of good wishes Tuesday night from his hometown fans in Watson Chapel and Pine Bluff.

A $4-a-plate dinner in his honor helped finance "Jesse Branch night." The 21-year-old athlete took time out of studying for final exams to shyly accept the praise and gifts.

The praise was led by Razorback Coach Frank Broyles, who summed up Branch's success in four points: he knew the rules of the game, set his goals high, achieved them by hard work and determination, and "set a Christian example for other athletes." Broyles said Branch never missed a practice session, never fumbled the ball in a game and played more minutes than any other Razorback.

Branch has signed with Calgary of the Canadian League. He'll report July 1, play next season in Canada, then return to the university to pick up three hours' work he needs for his degree.

The new car Branch received as a gift bore the license number 2-1. His razorback numeral was 21.

Don Knight, basketball coach at Watson Chapel and Branch's former football coach, recounted the star's high school career and L. L. Owens, Watson Chapel superintendent, ran down his scholastic achievements.

C. C. Martin of Pine Bluff, the toastmaster at the banquet, said if everyone on the Razorback team had played as well as Branch, Arkansas would have won the Sugar Bowl game "about 66-7." The Hogs lost to Mississippi 17-13.

Branch was second-team All-Southwest Conference and was named to The Associated Press All-America honorable mention list.

One home court string went by the boards Wednesday night when Furman knocked off Virginia Tech 66-61 in a Southern Conference game, ending the Gobblers' 41-game home victory streak dating back to Feb. 7, 1958.

In other conference activity, North Carolina edged North Carolina State 67-65 in an Atlantic Coast game. Harvard defeated Dartmouth 59-55 in an Ivy League clash and Morehead beat Western Kentucky 87-71 in the Ohio Valley.

Elsewhere, ninth-ranked West Virginia whipped Penn State 89-73, DePaul belted Notre Dame 83-69 and Louisville defeated Xavier, Ohio 75-66.

sonable visits to their daughter, Margot, 12, who is in a school in Pennsylvania.

West Berlin police said they were not noticed by Communist guards and therefore no details of their escape were revealed.

East Pours It on West in Pro Play

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The East congratulated itself with utmost justification today on its 115-108 victory over the West in the National Basketball Association's annual All-Star game.

Many called it an upset. But, the way things turned out, this was no upset. Someone just picked the wrong favorite. And it irritated the East something awful.

What happened was that Oscar Robertson, Bill Russell and a host of less renowned pros of the East simply ran, passed and scored the pantaloons off the West.

"I never had an easier game," said the East's coach, Red Auerbach.

The East opened the scoring on a basket by Tom Heinsohn of Auerbach's Boston Celtics and was never tied nor behind from there on.

At halftime it was 56-50, and the score was much closer than the contest. For example, 3 minutes and 20 seconds before that buzzer the West's great Elgin Baylor had scored his first and only field goal of the entire first half.

Robertson went on to lead the East in scoring with 21 points. Russell, who had 19, bottled up the West attack and won the Most-Valuable-Player award for the evening.

The shining light for the West was Bob Pettit, with a game high of 25 points. This was the veteran St. Louis Hawk's 10th All-Star game.

The thing that shocked the local boosters among the crowd of 14,838 was the frigid performance of Baylor and Jerry West of the Los Angeles Lakers.

Baylor sank but 4 out of 15 field goal attempts, and 9 of 13 free throws for a total of 17 points.

West hit on 5 out of 15 field goal tries and 3 out of 4 free shots for 13 points.

TELEPHONE TALK

SUDDENLY IT'S 1963

Do you ever get the feeling the years are going by faster than they used to? Does it seem to you that someone has been tampering with the calendar and shortchanging us a few months? A new year, like a new pair of shoes, takes some getting used to.

LOOKING BACK

In the telephone business, there's not much time for looking back. There's too much ahead. Still, since 1962 is only barely behind us, I'd like to tell you about a few highlights of the old year as I saw them from my own job with Southwestern Bell-Arkansas.

The most spectacular telephone news in 1962 was — you guessed it — Telstar, the world's first active communications space satellite. If ever there was a doubt about which nation leads the world in modern communications, Telstar settled the issue with a bang!

Not all telephone progress in 1962 was as dramatic. Many unspectacular — but vitally important — advances were made in providing you with better service. Right here in Arkansas, for instance, Southwestern Bell made several important service improvements.

We worked hard on stormproofing the long distance calling network by placing telephone cables underground and using more microwave radio relay. Underground cables and microwave relays help us beat the weather by providing insurance against breaks, leaks, and other malfunctions.

Another project was our cable pressurization program. Dry air is pumped through telephone cables and helps keep moisture out if a cable develops a leak. Thanks to this pressurization, trouble is usually spotted and fixed before it affects your service.

Another big improvement in 1962 was the addition of many (my voice amplifiers to our telephone lines. These "voice boosters" put new pep in your phone. Whether you telephone across town or across the state, these boosters are designed to help your voice come through clear and strong.

In Hope, telephone progress was made in 1962 with the addition of 184 telephones. This means you can now reach more people with your telephone — making your service that much more valuable to you.

ONE LAST THOUGHT

I can sum up our reasons behind all the improvements we've made — and all the improvements we're going to make — in one sentence: Our never-ending goal is to improve your telephone service and make it more valuable to you.

Call by number. We'll take care of you.

May Refund Money for Burch Plant

WEST MEMPHIS, Ark. (AP)—Chamber of Commerce official said Tuesday plans would be made to refund some $120,000 raised to finance movement of the Burch Plow Works to this community if intentions of the firm were not made known by the end of this week.

The chamber, which has been negotiating with the Evansville, Ind. firm for three years, received a letter Tuesday from A. V. Burch Jr., operating vice president, saying plans to move the company have been temporarily shelved.

C. J. Wilson, chairman of the chamber's industrial committee, said his organization had asked for a definite commitment by Burch by Jan. 15, so it could either go ahead with plans for reception of the firm or put the land where the company would be located to other uses.

The letter cited "unnecessary delays" in negotiations with the city over moving arrangements and said the firm is in the midst of its busiest season.

Wilson said a letter has been written to Burch, seeking a yes or no answer on plans to move to West Memphis.

The $120,000 was raised by subscription from residents and firms of West Memphis, Memphis and Little Rock, he said. It is being held in an escrow account.

Wilson said the chamber had

Bomb Hoax Brings an Evacuation

MONTICELLO, Ark. (AP)—A bomb hoax caused the evacuation of the administration building at Arkansas A&M College here Monday. Dr. Claude Babin, school president, said classes would be held as usual today.

An anonymous male caller telephoned the administration building shortly before noon Monday and said a bomb had been planted and "you'd better get everybody out of there quick."

Babin did. Sgt. Buck Halsell of Dumas, who is a criminal investigator for the State Police, and Drew County sheriff's deputies searched the building. No bomb was found.

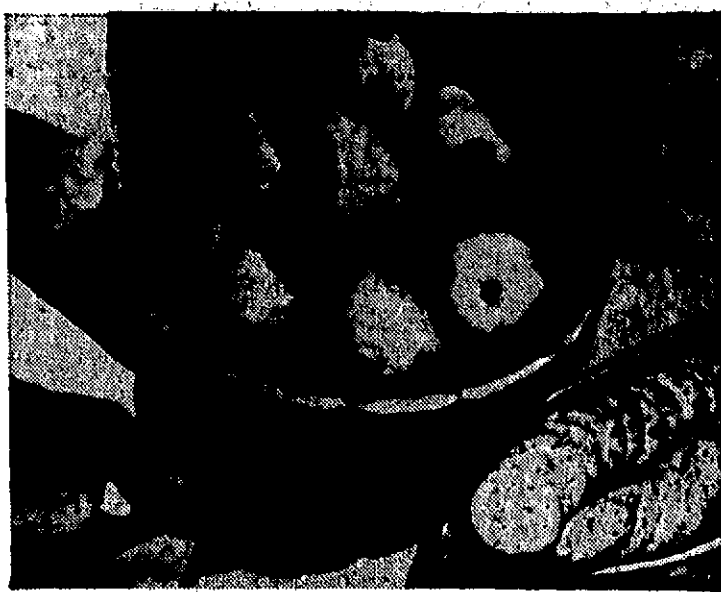

"We're not taking it lightly, but we believe it could be nothing more or less than a prank," Babin said. "We have no controversies and there could be no motivation."

Batesville Plant

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Construction has begun here on a $150,000 plant for Precision Products Co. and production is scheduled to begin by the end of February. About 15 persons are expected to be employed in pilot operations at the 7,200-square foot plant. Precision Products makes screw parts for Arkansas manufacturing firms.

done everything possible to accelerate plans for movement of the firm, which would have employed some 400 persons.

Dessert Of Distinction

The simplicity of fruit becomes dessert elegance when the fruit is fresh pears and the cheese is sharp cheddar. With the abundance of summer harvest past, it is indeed a pleasant surprise to find the luxurious fresh pears on the market. Their freshness at the time fresh fruits are limited, makes them doubly appealing. The flavor combination of fresh pears and cheese is one for the delight of epicures and the recommendation of gourmets.

A few of the many cheeses that complement pears are: Roquefort, Cheddar, Edam, Camembert, Gouda.

Pear Varieties

First of the pear varieties on the market is the BOSC. Its russet color and long, tapering neck and symmetrical body distinguish it. Although exceptionally fine for baking and for pies, the Bosc is an all-purpose pear due to its tender, spicy sweet flesh. October through February is the season for Bosc pears.

The fragrant juicy and buttery sweet ANJOU is on the market from October through May. Its smooth, thin skin encloses a fine-grained snowy, white flesh that is delectable for out-of-hand eating as well as baking.

COMICE are perhaps the most luxurious pear. Their season is short, they are usually large and their flavor and texture are magnificent. Available from October through February, they are prized for Christmas gift giving.

Whether used for snacking, a gourmet dessert, to fill lunchboxes or "baked into" good things of all kinds, fresh winter pears fill a delightful place in our menus.

Brace for a Shock on Tax Reforms

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Brace yourself for a shock when President Kennedy spells out to Congress, later this month, the $3.5 billion worth of reforms he wants tied to tax reduction.

The loopholes he would close may be your own.

They may range all the way from the stock options given to corporation heads right on down to the common income tax deductions long available to every middle-income householder.

At least a score of proposals to "broaden the tax base"—meaning, to make more income subject to tax—and curtail or erase "unfair or unnecessary preferences" have been under study at the Treasury since Kennedy took office.

Just which ones the President will request, to offset in part the revenues lost by his three-year plan to reduce taxes by $13.5 billion, remain a well-kept Treasury secret. Kennedy gave no hints in his State of the Union message to Congress Monday.

In any event, tax specialists at the Capitol predict that Congress won't give all, or even nearly all, that Kennedy wants. It would be much easier politically to give less tax cut and less reform, they point out, thus arriving at the same deficit with less pain. Least popular politically, among the proposals known to be under study, are income tax deductions which most families have come to consider a matter of justice and right. Nevertheless, Kennedy may request the pruning of some of these:

1. Deductions for medical outlays and casualty losses.

2. Deductions for sales and excise taxes paid to state and city governments.

3. The interest on mortgage payments.

4. The privilege enjoyed by married couples of filing joint returns which split their income, and reduce their total tax. Single persons pay much more on the same income.

Kennedy's targets are very likely to include some other tax provisions at which reform advocates have been shooting for years—the capital gains rate, depletion allowances, stock options, tax-free state and municipal bonds, and the $50 exclusion and 4 per cent tax credit on stock dividends.

Price Support

WASHINGTON (AP)—Recommendations for a 1963 price support program were presented to the House Agriculture subcommittee Tuesday by spokesmen for cotton farmers. The recommendations, submitted to the Agriculture Department Monday, include a proposal that domestic mills get a subsidy to offset the 8½ cent export subsidy enjoyed by competitive mills abroad using U.S. grown cotton. Lloyd Godley of Osceola, Ark. was among those testifying in the presentation of the growers' views.

Would Make West Berlin a Free City

By TOM OCHILTREE

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev called today for establishment of West Berlin as a free city guaranteed by the United Nations with foreign troops remaining under the U.N. flag "for a certain time."

He urged the Western powers to "draw from the lesson of Cuba" in dealing with the problem of divided Berlin.

The Berlin issue must be solved, he added, "to ban the danger of war."

The Soviet premier, in address to 2,500 delegates and visitors at the East German Communist party's sixth congress, also called for conclusion of a German peace treaty which "will not bring gains to one side and losses to the other."

But Khrushchev again set no deadline for a peace treaty, saying that because of the Communist wall dividing Berlin the signing of a peace treaty is not the same pressing problem it was before Aug. 13, 1961—the date the wall started up.

Then, stressing his side of his bitter dispute with the Chinese Communists, Khrushchev said that all international problems "must be solved by negotiations only."

"The Socialist powers are for peaceful coexistence, settlement of disputes by negotiations," he declared. "We are interested in peace, not in war, because socialism will win."

Khrushchev assured the East German Communists that Germany will be unified and anti-Communist forces in West Germany "will be swept away."

Departing from his prepared text, he told the congress that the future of Germany belongs to Red East Germany. Warning his arm and princingly admonishing Western newsmen to take down his words, he said the East Germans "will progress under the banner of Marxism."

In 1946, a Tennesseean named William Crawley settled in Washington County, set up a potter's wheel, and for 25 years moulded earthenware, jugs, crocks and jars.

King Calls for Interfaith Drive

CHICAGO (AP)—Dr. Martin Luther King has given his blessing to an interfaith campaign against racial barriers. But he says each church "should remove the yoke of segregation from its own body."

He also said church members should bring minority families into their communities and help them find homes.

The Atlanta Negro clergyman, a leader of the non-violent wing of the forces of integration and president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, outlined his views Tuesday.

He held a news conference at the National Conference on Religion and Race, a meeting of 600 members of Protestant, Jewish and Roman Catholic organizations who are drawing up a program of action.

Sargent Shriver Jr., director of the Peace Corps, addressed the conferees Tuesday night and suggested that church members could fit their time and form volunteer religious units to work to eliminate racial barriers in the United States.

Some Facts About Income Tax Returns

EDITOR'S NOTE — In making out 1962 federal income tax returns, the citizen can save money by using the correct tax rate and understanding the exemptions allowed. This article, third of a series, tells how the rules differ for different groups of taxpayers.

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — Save money on your 1962 income tax return by picking the right tax rate and understanding husband-wife filing problems and exemptions.

Each exemption means $600 knocked off your income before what's left is taxable. For those figuring their own tax there are three different tax rates in separate schedules on page 2 of the 14-page instruction sheet provided by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

The rates differ because the rules differ for different groups of taxpayers. The three schedules are No. 1, highest rate; No. 2, lower; No. 3, lowest.

No. 1—For single persons and married couples filing separately. This is why married couples should think twice before filing separately.

No. 2—For unmarried or legally separated taxpayers who can qualify as "heads of household." More in detail on that later.

No. 2—For married people filing jointly and certain widows and widowers. Remember: both husband and wife must sign a joint return to have it considered joint.

Anyone filing a return gets a $600 exemption for himself, $1,200 if he's over 65, and $600 more if he's blind at any age.

He gets the same exemption for his wife if she fits the rules. Here are the rules:

A wife doesn't have to file a return if she had no 1962 income. You can file your own, claiming a $600 exemption for yourself, another $600 for her. But, because you alone filed, you'd have to use schedule No. 1, the highest rate.

That's losing money because a wife without income can file jointly with you. You'd still take the two $600 exemptions but would use schedule No. 2 with the lowest tax rate. Most married people do this.

There are some special exceptions where a husband and wife come out ahead filing separately. Work it out both ways if you have doubts.

A wife with income under $600 doesn't have to file a return because less than that amount does not have to be reported.

But, because she had any income at all, you can't claim the $600 exemption for her unless she files jointly with you on schedule No. 2. In such a case, if you alone filed, you'd have to use schedule No. 1.

If she had income and files jointly with you, she must report that income, no matter how

Policeman Free on $1,000 Bond

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A former North Little Rock policeman arrested Dec. 28 in connection with a car theft ring has been charged in Circuit Court with being an accessory after the fact of a $2,400 safe burglary last June 18 at the J. C. Penney store in Little Rock. John Harmon Manasco Sr., 33, was fired from the police force upon his arrest. He is free on $1,000 bond on the state charge and on $500 bond on a federal charge of helping to dispose of stolen cars.

Prosecutor John Jernigan said Manasco was paid $1,000 for "naming the place" for the burglary. Jernigan quoted Manasco as saying Hersell Ashley, 23, formerly of Little Rock, committed the burglary. Ashley is serving a 7-year sentence in Colorado for burglary.

small, on your joint return.

Suppose your wife had income of $800 or more. Then she must, like anyone else with that much income, file a return, either separately or jointly with you. If she files separately, she uses schedule No. 1 claiming her own $600 exemption. You then would also have to use No. 1, filing separately and claiming your $600 exemption.

If you file jointly, you use tax rate schedule No. 2, claiming your two $600 exemptions on that one return.

Couples filing separately must either take the standard 10 per cent deduction allowed all taxpayers for expenses or, if one itemizes, then both must itemize. When they itemize, as pointed out earlier in this series, they must use form 1040.

104 ezcu vc24 we ssszckknltssaoilyzyy

Your Income Tax III—Gal 2

Although a single person or a couple filing jointly can take the standard deduction of 10 per cent of their income—up to a maximum deduction of $1,000—without itemizing, a married couple filing separately can each take the standard 10 per cent deduction only up to a limit of 500.

You were considered married for all of 1962 if you were married anytime in the year, even as late as Dec. 31. You were considered divorced for the whole year if you were divorced as late as Dec. 31. You can not claim an exemption for your divorced wife even though you paid more than half her support in 1962.

If a married couple filed separate returns in 1961 and 1962, or in both years, and now realize it cost them more than if they had filed jointly, they can correct the mistake by now filing a joint return for those years.

Rules on head-of-household: This is a special category giving a tax break to some people with certain responsibilities and expenses. If you fill the requirements, you can use schedule No. 3, which has a lower tax rate than No. 1 although higher than No. 2.

These are the requirements:

You were unmarried or legally separated at the end of 1962 or were married by the end of 1962 to someone who for part of the year was a non-resident alien; you must have furnished over half the cost of maintaining your home which was the main residence of yourself and your unmarried child, stepchild or grandchild, even though not a dependent of yours, or of any other relative you can claim as a dependent; or if you paid more than half the cost of maintaining a home for your mother or father if either can qualify as you dependent.

You can not claim you maintained a home for a parent if you were paying for him or her in a home for the aged.

Here are rules on widows and widowers who, instead of having to file as single persons using schedule No. 1, can save money by using No. 2 with its lower tax rate:

at your wife, or husband, died in 1962 and you did not remarry; you can claim a $600 exemption for your deceased spouse on a joint return, using schedule No. 2. In that return you must report any income she had.

You can also use schedule No. 2 for your 1962 return—if your wife, or husband, died in 1961 or 1960—so long as you meet these five conditions:

You must have been entitled in 1961 or 1960 to file a joint return with her in the year of her death; you have a child or stepchild who qualifies as your dependent; and you furnish over half the cost of your home which is the principal residence of your dependent child or stepchild.

If you meet those conditions then, using schedule No. 2, you'd list your own income, exemptions and deductions but you can not—as you could if your wife had died in 1962—claim a $600 exemption for her.

DR. PRUITT'S BODY

By Kenneth O. Hay

Copyright 1963
by Kenneth O. Hay Distributed by Newspaper Enterprise Assn.DR. PRUITT'S BODY

By KENNETH O. HAY

THE STORY: Matt Bacon does not think espionage entered into the murder of Dr. Pruitt, but he must find proof that it did not.

When Matt finished his account of finding the body, Lieutenant Moynihan said: "I gather you think Pruitt never left the plant grounds, in spite of the check-out record?"

"Naturally. Who'd bring a dead man through the gate?"

"I didn't mean he was killed off the grounds. He might have slipped back through the visitor's entrance," said Matt.

"No chance," said Clague quickly. "That gate's locked after hours."

"It's a problem in spacetime," said Matt.

"Don't go Einstein on us," warned the lieutenant.

"All I mean is that Pruitt was murdered in a certain spot at a certain time. His body was hidden in order to conceal the time and place of the murder. Once we figure out when the killing took place, and where, the murderer's alibi won't stand up."

Moynihan was silent, thinking for a moment. "He must have killed Pruitt in his office. Did the body somewhere till after dark. Then carried it out the back door and hid it."

"The killer must have had access to a key to the back door and he knew how to juggle the time cards," said Matt. "The sun sets about 5:30, so he must have been here after that time. If we can find out who was here after 5:30, Pruitt could have been killed any time after Clague and Dr. Baylor saw him about 3 p.m."

"But those coveralls—"

"I thought about that," Matt said. "The coveralls include feet—sneakers, and they cover the whole body, except the hands and head."

"In the lab, they usually wear a head covering and gloves," explained Bradley.

"Well, it's just like a sack. Either Pruitt was wearing the coveralls when he was killed, or the murderer put them on the body. Maybe the murderer figured that he could find an opportunity later to conceal the body permanently—after it had decomposed and there was nothing left but bones and dried tissue. The body could be carried around in the coveralls, just like a sack."

Moynihan thought it over. "We won't know about that till we catch the killer," he said. He turned to Bradley. "How does it happen that nobody noticed the coveralls were missing?"

"Everyone gets a new pair every day," Bradley said. "The old ones are cleaned—decontaminated. When a man changes clothes, he drops his old coveralls in a box. The crew takes care of the cleaning and so on."

Moynihan asked a few more questions of Matt, Bradley and Clague, then broken off the interview. "We'll probably get in touch with you again," he said.

"Got any suspects?" Bradley asked.

"There are a lot of people we're going to talk to, but it doesn't mean any of them is under suspicion," said Moynihan. Matt went back to the Security Office with Clague. He spent an hour going through copies of statements on Pruitt's disappearance. He made a careful list of people who admitted seeing Dr. Pruitt after lunch on Thursday afternoon. He noted all had left before 5:30. The last person who had seen Chester Pruitt alive apparently had been Simon Rispin, who called on the murder victim "about 3:15" on the afternoon he disappeared. Rispin had been in Pruitt's office about 15 minutes. Matt folded his notes and put on his hat and topcoat. He was alone in the office. Clague having gone with Moynihan and other officers to talk to people in the nuclear lab.

In the outer office of the Security Building sat an older officer in uniform checking some reports. He looked up as Matt appeared.

"Finished?" he asked.

"Not even half done," said Matt. "What happens to a man who tries to pull something at the Time Office?"

"Well, he gets a layoff at least. But we don't have much trouble anymore along that line."

"You have had trouble?"

"We used to have," said the officer. "A few years ago, fellows used to punch in and out for each other. That was before we put in the electronic clocks. Then we started nailing the fellows that didn't punch. That put a stop to it. Everybody has to punch or he doesn't get in or out. We've got men at each gate who watch for anything funny."

"Anything funny happen recently?"

"The cop shook his head. "We know all the tricks."

"How can you say that?"

"Because it's true," said the officer.

"Well, there's one trick you haven't learned," said Matt. "Somebody checked Pruitt out after he was murdered."

"You ain't learned it either," said the officer. "So I guess we ain't so dumb."

Nobody in this place talked sense, Matt thought.

New Electronic Equipment Used

NEW YORK (AP)—The Associated Press utilized new electronic equipment Monday to send an advance text of President Kennedy's State of the Union message to some newspapers in six minutes.

Utilizing a newly installed Dataspell system, AP transmitted more than 6,000 words at a rate of 1,050 words per minute. AP's Dataspell facilities are used to speed the transmission of stock market tables throughout the country.

Newspapers as widely separated geographically as the Newark (N.J.) News and the San Diego (Calif.) Union received the Kennedy text in the time it ordinarily would have taken to send less than 400 words on standard news circuits.

Blooming Is Rarely Used on Names

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—It's been a long time since a fiery television feud started blazing. The last intramural battle was when Jack Paar walked off his show in a rage at his bosses.

Now a little conflagration has started. On Thursday last a comedian on NBC's "Tonight Show," starring Johnny Carson, mentioned casually that he had been watching "The Merv Griffin Show," a program on the same network. However, when the "Tonight Show" went on the air that night, two words—"Merv Griffin"—had obviously been erased from the sound track.

This is called "blooming" and is normally used to erase offensive, libelous or slanderous language. It is rarely used to eliminate references to programs even on rival networks.

So on Friday, an annoyed and sarcastic Griffin talked about it on his own show.

"I was bloomed out of a show on the same network I work for," he confided sadly. "Is Merv the new four-letter word? Their mistake might have been to turn on the sound for the rest of the show, you know."

This turned into an embarrassing situation. An NBC spokesman explained that the two-word bloom was the result of "a mistaken, emotional reaction" by Perry Cross, producer of the "Tonight Show."

"He was disturbed about newspaper reports—completely unfounded and untrue—that NBC was unhappy about the 'Tonight Show' and planned to replace Carson with Griffin," he continued. "He's sorry he did. But the important thing is that he did it without the knowledge of NBC or of Carson."

Carson is away on a short vacation from the show.

Although the "Tonight Show" under Carson's leadership has not been generating as much comment or as many headlines

Dislikes Self Appointed Book Censors

LITTLE ROCK (AP)

The United States would be "better off without self appointed censors who decide what their town is going to read," television panelist and publisher Bennett Cerf said here Tuesday night.

Cerf, a lecturer at Little Rock University's "Evenings At Eight" series, said he was upset about a wave of censorship in the nation and he didn't mean the kind of censorship that this peddler of pornography and smut.

"I object to the self-appointed as it did in the old turbulent Paar days, it seems to be holding its own nicely in the ratings. They are just about the same as they were a year ago when Paar was around—some 35 per cent of the audience watching television that late at night.

But anyway, a good blazing feud adds zest to viewing.

Boxer Again in Good Standing

SPARKS, Nev. (AP)

Rocky, a 5-year-old boxer is again a canine resident in good standing.

The City Council reinstated Rocky's dog license after formal notification that he had undergone a successful ventriculocor-dectomy.

The council had withdrawn censors. I know police chiefs who would be better occupied looking for criminals. And I know ladies committees who decide what their town is going to read," he said.

"If you let them get away with it," he said of groups who put economic pressure on booksellers and theater operators, "they will be stopping books and pictures simply because they don't agree with the ideas of the ladies."

Cerf cited "Confidential," a magazine that folded after hitting circulation of 3 million, saying most Americans are intelligent enough to know what they want to read and that if they were left alone, the trash would die of its own accord.

DeGaulle's No Not Final, U.S. Hopes

WASHINGTON (AP)

Washington officials are refusing to take President Charles de Gaulle's "no" as a final answer to its proposal that France join with the United States and Britain in forming a NATO nuclear striking force.

The hope here is that the French attitude eventually will change. The U.S.-British project is just beginning and will take several years to carry through.

Undersecretary of State George W. Ball returned Tuesday from a week-long trip to Europe and said the United States is prepared to move ahead vigorously.

Rocky's license after complaints that he barked too much and too loud.

A veterinarian said it will be six months before he can bark again, and then with only a fraction of his former volume.

Teenage Curfew

TUCKERMAN, Ark. (AP)

A curfew against teenagers being on the street late at night has been adopted by the Tuckerman City Council. Curfew time Monday through Thursday is 10 p.m. and Friday, Saturday and Sunday is 11 p.m. Officials said parents are liable for violations.

on formation of the force with or without French cooperation.

Other officials said privately that De Gaulle's stand does not command support generally in Western Europe. They also said that even though the United States intends to move ahead it does not intend to close the door to French cooperation in the future.

Ball is reporting to President Kennedy and Secretary of State Dean Rusk on the results of his visit to Paris, where he talked with the 15-nation NATO council, and to Bonn where he met with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. It was understood that he was able to report the prospect for general cooperation of the NATO nations are good in spite of the French stand.
